SECTION III: SCOPE OF SERVICES

INTRODUCTION

NAMDIA is seeking for the services of a service provider to provide the company with a hotline as one of the mitigating tools against corruption, fraud, and any unethical behaviours that it could encounter as part of our fraud prevention and ethics programme as per it's the Fraud Risk Prevention Policy and Framework and the Whistleblowing Policy.

NAMDIA intends to outsource its whistleblowing functionalities to introduce an external independent and confidential whistleblowing hotline service which will enable internal and external stakeholders to report any workplace dishonesty, unethical conduct, and fraud.

The purpose of the externally administered whistle blower platform:

- Have a reliable whistleblowing platform considering our fragile IT system operations.
- To reinforce NAMDIA Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and provide assurance to all employees, contractors and other stakeholders related to NAMDIA that they will be protected from any penal action or victimization arising from any legitimate matters reported.
- Members of the public or stakeholders have the choice to report an incident anonymously, however, the identity of such a person will always be protected.

Scope

The Whistleblowing platform / service should be able to provide the following:

1. Anonymous Reporting Platform
 - Multiple secure and confidential platforms that allow employees, contractors, and other stakeholders to submit reports anonymously of any unlawful activities, unethical and inappropriate conduct in our operation.
 - The platforms should support multiple reporting channels such as telephone, email, and web-based reporting; or other modern multi communication channels.
 - Provision of real-time independent whistleblowing hotline service operating 24-hours a day, 7 days per week and 365 days a year that enables two-way anonymous communication for additional information and clarification.
2. Experienced staff
 - Staff handling calls should be experienced to be able to conduct thorough and objective interviews that guide whistle blowers in obtaining much information with a sense of security when consulted.
3. Multilingual capability
 - Translation capabilities to break language barriers and misinterpretations of communications by providing services also in local languages.

4. Legal and Regulatory Compliance

- Compliant with relevant laws, regulations and best practice regarding whistleblowing, data protection and privacy. Provide regular updates on any changes in legislation or industry standards to ensure ongoing compliance.

5. Reporting and Analytics

- Generate comprehensive reports and analytics on the whistleblowing programs effectiveness including the number and types of reports received classified based on allegations. These insights will help us identify areas of concern and implement appropriate measures to address them.
- Provision of support with our broader ethics program and fraud prevention plans.
- No restrictions should be created on what can be reported.

6. Training and Awareness

- Develop and deliver training programs to educate employees and stakeholders about the whistleblowing process, the rights and protection and importance of reporting misconduct and how their complaints are dealt with.
- In addition, the service provider should provide once-off virtual training as well as provide material to use during the campaign to launch the hotline as well as create ongoing awareness through traditional and modern communication mediums.
- This is to promote a culture of trust, honesty, and ethical behavior to support whistleblowers and discourage retaliation.
- Assist the organization in creating awareness through training and posters and materials.

7. Support and Maintenance

- Provide ongoing technical support Maintenance and updates for the reporting platform and related infrastructure.
